

Hamilton Harbour Watershed Monitoring and Research Workshop January 20, 2006

2005 Field Season

Each year local Conservation Authorities host a workshop for those involved in Hamilton Harbour watershed monitoring and research. This year the workshop was combined with Project Paradise Field Season Review Workshop. Approximately 60 researchers and observers attended the workshop. The research presented at this workshop is, in most cases, preliminary in nature and the workshop is intended as a forum for monitors and researchers to exchange information and ideas. The topics presented are included in the following list along with the presenters name and email address.
